

W/B Presentation

In a high quality presentation:

The whiteboard can be easily read by all in the room.

The speaker clearly identifies the problem.

There is a labeled diagram of the situation (when appropriate).

All numbers and graphs have the appropriate units.

Underlying assumptions used in the choice of a model or the use of an equation are explained.

The speaker provides intelligent responses to questions posed by the class and teacher.